CONTEXT AND OBJECTIVES

CONTEXT AND OBJECTIVES

- The Way Ahead is the City of Edmonton's strategic vision for 2040. To achieve this long term vision, six ten-year goals have been set by the City. Several City departments contribute towards these goals.

- In September 2012, the City of Edmonton contracted Leger Marketing to conduct a survey of Edmontonians to understand perceptions of the City of Edmonton on various aspects.

- The data from this survey along with other non-opinion based performance measures will be used to track the progress of the city towards the strategic goals.

RESEARCH METHODS

RESEARCH METHODS

Questionnaire Development & Data Collection

- Random telephone survey of 400 Edmontonians; Data collection began on September 17th and finished on October 3rd. Targets were set by the following variables
  - Gender
  - Age
  - City Wards
- Minor weighting was done to ensure that the data were representative of the Edmonton population.
- Inputs were sought from various city departments to develop the questionnaire

Target Respondents

- Edmontonians, 18 years of age or older, who have lived in Edmonton for 6 months or longer

Statistical Reliability

- As a random telephone survey, the margin of error for a sample size of 400 respondents is ±4.9 percentage points, 19 times out of 20.
